STIPULATED MOTION TO EXTEND TRIAL SCHEDULE AND RESET TRIAL DATES

Pursuant to 37 C.F.R. § 2.121 and Rule § 6(b) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, the parties respectfully submit this stipulated motion to extend the trial schedule by sixty (60) days and correspondingly reset the testimony periods as follows:

Plaintiff's Pretrial Disclosures	November 17, 2012
Plaintiff's 30-day Trial Period Ends (opening thirty days prior thereto)	January 1, 2013
Defendant's Pretrial Disclosures	January 16, 2013
Defendant's 30-day Trial Period Ends (opening thirty days prior thereto)	March 2, 2013
Plaintiff's Rebuttal Disclosures	March 17, 2013
Plaintiff's 15-day Rebuttal Period Ends (opening fifteen days prior thereto)	April 16, 2013

As grounds for this consented motion, the parties submit that, despite working cooperatively and in good faith, they have been unable to schedule Petitioner's testimonial depositions during its 30-day trial period, which is set to commence under the current schedule on October 3, 2012. The parties initially attempted to schedule Petitioner's testimonial depositions during the month of October. However, due to the conflicting schedules of both counsel and the witnesses during October and also November, the parties currently are working to schedule Petitioner's testimonial depositions during the month of December.

In order to allow time to schedule and conduct Petitioner's testimonial depositions, the parties respectfully request that the trial schedule be extended by sixty (60) days and that the testimony periods be reset accordingly, as set forth above.

This request is made in good faith and not for purposes of delay.

Date: October 1, 2012

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ Raymond Rundelli
